

Daniel 10

Starting to see behind the scenes

Further hints of how heaven works, as well as hints of the future. But they're both still rather cryptic. We might do well not to be too definitive in our interpretations!

➤ Another “word”

Not that there is a major “storyline” to this chapter, but what can you make of what is happening here?

There's this period of three weeks (2,3,13). Is the 24th of the month (4) at the beginning or the end of these?

What sounds like something in Revelation?

Is this a picture of angelic warfare, do you think?

Who is this entity of such awesome appearance?

Any suggestions as to what this “fight against the prince of Persia” (20) – and, with that context, “the kings / kingdom of Persia” (13) might mean?

And “Michael, one of the chief princes” (13), “your prince” (21) – and presumably also 12:1? Michael as in Jude 9 and Revelation 12:7?
